CALL TO WORSHIP

L: The search continues. The call is out. God is looking for those who will represent.

P: Here I am, Lord, send me.

L: There are people crying. There are people dying. There are people who need hope.

P: Here I am, Lord, send me.

L: There is much depression, much despair, much pain.

P: Here I am, Lord, send me.

L: In this season of Epiphany, God is searching for those who will twinkle in their places.

P: We have heard your call. Speak, your servants are listening.

CALL TO CONFESSION

The noise of this world makes us deaf to the small, still, and quiet voice of the Holy One. In these sacred moments we can confess our sin and listen for God as the inner clamor ceases. Let us center down.

CONFESSION

God, we confess that too often we do not hear you call. The real deal is that we get so busy doing our own thing that we forget to listen! Yet, we long to hear a fresh word from you. Forgive us our sin. Speak to our hearts. Amen.

MESSAGE

“Know Your Gift”
Rev Herbert W. Watson, Jr.

WE DEPART TO SERVE GOD AND GOD’S CREATION

Leave to be the Church everywhere you go! We leave knowing that we have been called to be sent to bring others. Leave remembering that you are wonderful! We leave in the knowledge of whose we are, wonderful offspring of a Wonder-Working God! This is truly our good news! Hallelujah and Amen!
